Re: U.S. v. Goldberger et al. & U.S. v. Ashkenazi et al.
12-CR-598 (PAC) ✓ 12-CR-581 (PKC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

I write to respectfully request that Your Honor permit defendant Samuel Goldberger to attend religious services in connection with the Jewish High Holidays pursuant to the terms of his bail conditions.

Mr. Goldberger is under indictment in two separate cases in this District. On August 15, 2012 Mr. Goldberger was simultaneously arraigned in the above-captioned case pending before Your Honor, and presented for his initial appearance in the above captioned case pending before Judge Castel. Mr. Goldberger's bail conditions set by Magistrate Judge Peck for both cases include home confinement with electronic monitoring with the caveat that Mr. Goldberger is permitted to attend "religious services on advance notice to Pretrial." (Docket No. 15).

On September 5, 2012, my associate Noah Shelanski emailed Mr. Goldberger's Pretrial Services Officer Dennis Khilkevich, requesting that Mr. Goldberger be permitted to attend a number of religious services in connection with the upcoming Jewish Holidays. (See Exhibit A). Mr. Shelanski's email attached a schedule of the religious services prepared by the administration of the Mr. Goldberg's synagogue. (See Exhibit B). Mr. Shelanski was informed by Officer Khilkevich that due to the "complexity and extent of the request, we would need the Judge's endorsement" for the request. (See Exhibit C). Accordingly, I request permission for Mr. Goldberger to attend the religious services set forth in Mr. Shelanski's September 5th email to Officer Khilkevich for: (1) Selichot (services to recite penitential prayers prior to Yom

Dennis:

As I mentioned to you yesterday, Mr. Goldberger has a busy religious schedule due to the upcoming Jewish Holidays. I have attached a fax from the administrator at Mr. Goldberger's synagogue listing the times of the upcoming High Holiday services. I have placed these times into the chart below and added 10 minutes on either side of the scheduled services so as to allow Mr. Goldberger sufficient time to travel between his home and the synagogue (there is one exception to the 10 minutes added for September 9th, which I have explained below). These are the times that I am requesting that Mr. Goldberger be permitted to leave his home.

Date	Religious Event	Leave Home	Return Home
September 9, 2012	Selichot	4:50am	10:30am*
September 16, 2012	Selichot	4:50am	8:10am
September 16, 2012	Rosh Hashanah	7pm	10:50pm
September 17, 2012	Rosh Hashanah	7:20am	5:40pm
September 17, 2012	Rosh Hashanah	6:35pm	9pm
September 18, 2012	Rosh Hashanah	7:20am	5:40pm
September 18, 2012	Rosh Hashanah	6:35pm	9pm
September 22, 2012	Sabbath Shuvah	9:05am	1:40pm
September 25, 2012	Selichot	5:20am	8:10am
September 25, 2012	Yom Kippur	2:20pm	4:40pm
September 25, 2012	Yom Kippur	6:10pm	11:10pm
September 26, 2012	Yom Kippur	7:20am	8:40pm

*Although the attached fax indicates that the Selichot service for September 9th will end at 9:30am, I have requested that Mr. Goldberger be permitted to return home at 10:30am. The reason for this request is that this service includes a visit to a cemetery in Westchester county with the entire synagogue community. Because Mr. Goldberger will be returning home from Westchester and not from the synagogue which is near to his home, I have requested the additional time following the service so that he will have sufficient time to return home.

Please note that this request does not include permission for Mr. Goldberg to attend other standard Friday and Saturday religious services which vary in time from week to week due to the changing times of the sunset. Mr. Goldberg or I will contact you in the future regarding permission to attend those religious services.

Best regards,

Noah
